Fulton County Seniors Enjoy overnight trip to Holmes County

Forty Seniors set out on an fall adventure to Holmes County Ohio for an Amish Country Getaway. Seniors traveled by charter bus to Berlin, Ohio for lunch and shopping. Other stops included Walnut Creek Cheese, the musical "Menonite Girls Can Cook!", lodging at the Carlisle Inn in Sugar Creek as well as visits to Warther Museum of Wood Carvings and Lehman's Hardware Store in Kidron.

This trip received rave reviews from the seniors. "Everything was well done. This was my first time doing anything with the Senior Center, good job," stated Lois Miller.

Due to the positive response, senior center personnel will be considering additional trips in the future!
