National County Government Month School Tours have begun

NATIONAL COUNTY GOVERNMENT MONTH
APRIL 2018

April is National County Government Month and one of the ways that Fulton County celebrates is by hosting tours for schools to see and learn about county government first-hand. Students get to experience Commissioners Sessions, tour the courtrooms and hear from the Judges, tour the 911 Center and learn about the Sheriff's Office and the K-9 Unit. They hear from the County Auditor, Treasurer, Prosecutor and Engineer. They tour Job & Family Services, Workforce Development and the Health Department.

Andrea Oyer, Social Studies Teacher at Archbold High School stated "It was a great day...I think the students thoroughly enjoyed themselves. I am grateful to work in a county with such phenomenal and invested elected officials and employees."

Upcoming School tours include Evergreen High School, Fayette High School, Wauseon High School and Wauseon Second Grade Class.
