Soil and Water Conservation District Hosts Successful Events

Participants at the Monarchs & More Family Fun Day featured hands-on activities and conservation education in a fun environment.

Third Grade Students from Fulton County enjoyed learning about a variety of different agriculture related topics at Ag Fest, such as goats.

The Fulton Soil and Water Conservation District hosted two educational events in September. Third Grade students throughout Fulton County enjoyed the 14th Annual Ag Fest, which featured nearly twenty different agriculture related stations throughout the Fulton County Fairgrounds. This event provided an educational and hands-on opportunity for students to learn about the diversity of agriculture in Northwest Ohio. Topics included Dairy, Pork, Then and Now, Bees, Pollinators, Rocks, Water, Poultry, Alpacas, Goats and so much more!

On Sunday September 8th, Fulton Soil and Water Conservation District, in partnership with Sauder Village, hosted Monarchs and More Family Fun Day. This event was held at Little Lake Erie at Sauder Village and featured hands-on opportunities to learn about conservation in a fun environment. Visitors were able to learn more about Monarchs and Butterfly tagging from the Toledo Zoo, Composting, Bee Keeping, Rain Gardens Wildlife and Animal Pelts, Maple Syrup, Water Quality and Soils, as well as many fun activities for kids.

Fulton County Courthouse Offices

All offices are now up and running at the Fulton County Courthouse following a historical renovation that began in October 2018. The Fulton County Court of Common Pleas, Fulton County Ohio Juvenile and Probate Divisions and Juvenile Probation, as well as the Fulton County Clerk of Courts Legal Division have moved back into their newly renovated spaces.

The project included the replacement of the heating and cooling systems, a new fire suppression system, updated and additional security and technology features, a new ADA-compliant elevator, updates and reconfiguration of staff offices and a historic restoration of the Common Pleas Courtroom.

The Fulton County Courthouse is located at 210 S. Fulton Street, Wauseon, Ohio.
